

Boca Raton News

Leading the community to a better tomorrow

Also serving Delray Beach

August 17, 2009

<http://www.southfloridamediagroup.com/archives/BocaNews08-17-09.pdf>

The flavor of Brooklyn

(Special to the News)

Delray Beach Mayor Nelson S. "Woodie" McDuffie was among dignitaries on hand for the opening Aug. 10 of the Original Brooklyn Water Bagel shop at 14451 S. Military Trail, Delray Beach. The shop also made a $500 donation to the Florida Marlins Community Foundation, a charity that promotes educational, athletic, health, social and community service programs with a particular focus on South Florida's youth. The restaurant uses a special patented water process that makes the bagels taste like they were made in Brooklyn. Among those at the opening were, front, from left, owner-founder Steven M. Fassberg, City Commissioner Adam Frankel, Brooklyn's Director of Operations Dennis Quaranta, Chamber of Commerce Executive Vice President Beth Johnston and Deputy Mayor Gary Eliopoulos; rear, from left, Brooklyn's Greg Mandor, Mayor Woodie McDuffie, Brooklyn's Director of Catering Ray Fassberg, Commissioner Fred Fetzer and Brooklyn's Chief Operating Officer Scott Harris